UNFORGETTABLE URBAN LUXURY

A rooftop terrace at sunset. The foreground features two long, light-colored sofas with green and grey cushions, facing each other with a white coffee table in between. The table holds three small vases of red flowers. The terrace has a wooden deck and a glass railing. In the background, the city of Dublin is visible, including the River Liffey and the Dublin Mountains, under a dramatic orange and yellow sunset sky.

WELCOME TO ANANTARA THE MARKER DUBLIN HOTEL

Anantara The Marker Dublin Hotel offers contemporary urban luxury overlooking the Grand Canal Square. Perfectly located in the modernised Docklands, the hotel captures the unique mix of vibrant charm and rich culture that exemplifies the spirit of modern Dublin.

Originally a significant Viking Settlement and Port, Dublin's character has been shaped by architecture spanning from medieval to modern times. Built by the greatest engineers of the age, the Grand Canal Docks were the final point of the Grand Canal (An Chanáil Mhór), connecting Dublin, in the east of Ireland, with the River Shannon in the west, via a series of villages and towns.

ACCOMMODATION

Most rooms and suites have striking views over Grand Canal Square and the Docklands, to the Dublin and Wicklow mountains and Irish sea. Bathed in natural light, spacious and designed with supreme comfort and style, all guest rooms set a new standard in city living.

Deluxe Room

Deluxe Rooms harmonise beauty and functionality, with ergonomic furnishings and high-tech amenities designed in a sleek, contemporary style. The bespoke furniture has been crafted by Irish designers, while original artwork showcases some of the best home-grown talent. The bathroom is indulgent, with floor-to-ceiling marble creating an astonishing sanctuary, and luxurious toiletries exclusively by VOYA.

Premium Room

In addition to all the style and comforts of a Deluxe Room, the Premium Rooms are perfectly positioned to offer guests an impressive and sweeping view of Grand Canal Square. High-tech amenities range from an interactive entertainment system to a Nespresso Zenius machine. Make a fresh brew, then sink into an Eames-style chair or Villeroy & Boch marble bathtub.

Premium Room View

Premium Room View is a bright and spacious room with a view over Bord Gáis Energy Theatre. High-tech amenities range from an interactive entertainment system to a Nespresso Zenius machine.

Premium Grand Canal View Room

Premium Room with Grand Canal View highlight the hotel's impressive and sweeping view over Grand Canal Square and the waterfront. High-tech amenities range from an interactive entertainment system to a Nespresso Zenius machine.

Junior Corner Suite

Junior Corner Suite's are ideal for business travellers or families, with extra space to work, lounge and rest. Natural sunlight falls on the desk with Eames-style chair, a freshly brewed espresso is at your fingertips, and cots can be added for children with space easily left over for play.

Junior Corner Suite with View

Wake to views of bustling Grand Canal Square, the cityscape and the misty Wicklow Mountains in the distance. The epitome of modern elegance, with original Irish artworks and plush colourful fabrics adorning the light space.

One Bedroom Suite

With a separate living room brimming with plush rugs, pillows and throws, a designer sofa set and original paintings, our two One Bedroom Suites are the home away from home you never had. Choose from The Roche, named after Dublin-born Nobel Prize architect of Convention Centre Dublin, which overlooks the iconic building or The Schwartz, named after the Grand Canal Square designer, showcasing sixth floor views of the square.

Presidential Suite with View

Enjoy an expansive 129 square metres (1400 sq. ft.); The Presidential Suite is located on the unhampered fifth floor that boasts unobstructed views of Grand Canal Square and iconic architectural landmarks – both old and new – that make up the city's unique fabric. Two ensuite bedrooms open onto a breakfast room and separate living room decked out in comforts from specially commissioned furnishings and art to a Nespresso machine.
