Ballroom

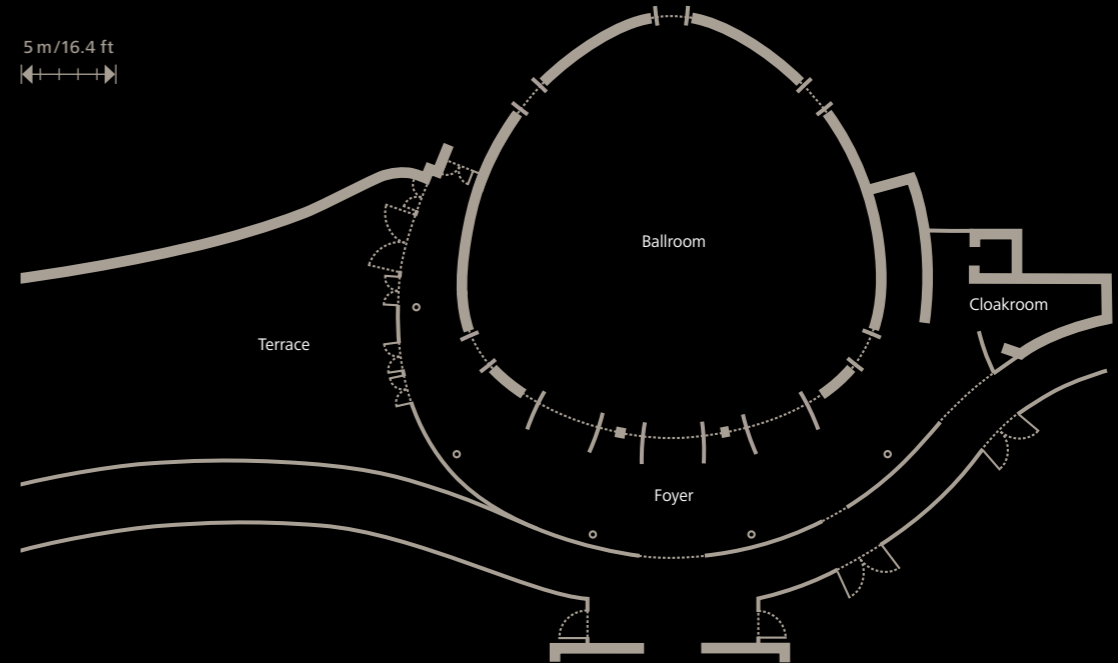

Encompassing 400 square metres, the oval Ballroom is impressive due to its exquisite design. The imposing cupola ceiling can be lit in various different colours. The parquet flooring is ideal for evening balls, and the walls covered with a layer of Alcantara ensure perfect acoustics. The foyer has enough space to serve as a reception area, which can be extended onto the adjoining terrace, if required.

For conferences and seminars, classic banquets or romantic weddings: the Ballroom offers a wide range of seating arrangements and can accommodate various mobile elements such as a stage and dance floor, as well as additional sound and lighting equipment, according to your needs.

Garden Salons

The three Garden Salons in the Main Building have carpeted floors and feature indirect lighting from a segmented ceiling, as well as a Swarovski crystal curtain. Combinations of between 120 and 409 square metres are possible, and the floor-to-ceiling windows provide a spacious feel and flood the rooms with light.

The individual Salons can be divided by Makassar ebony partitions and are ideal for seminars, conferences and family occasions. All Salons offer direct access to the terrace and its wonderful south-facing views.

Libraries

The two Libraries are situated next to each other and emanate a typically British atmosphere. The cosy living-room feel is complemented by the fireplace, paintings by Dutch artist Abraham Bisschop, antiques and travel literature.
